WED 7/3: Ray Davies, founding member and creative force of the Kinks, has written, scored, and directed "Return to Waterloo" — an explosive rock drama that picks up the story where the song, "Suburban Man" leaves off, now playing for an exclusive engagement at the Roxy Screening Room. (Phone 561-0114 for showtimes and info.) Tonight Kennel Club and the Roxy invite you to a very special party to celebrate the release of a film called by many "Strikingly original and, at times, brilliant... a little masterpiece." You'll be treated to clips, videos, music and more... all to herald the release of a must-see film.

THU 7/4: Weee!!! Happy Birthday America... you made it to another year. Come and have a drink on us... it's Open Bar at Kennel tonight from 9-3. Sample any one of a number of drinks concocted by our fabulous bartenders and you'll soon be seeing your very own special display of stars and stripes forever.

FRI 7/5: Ladies and Gentlemen, may I have your attention please!!! And now, here at Kennel to celebrate the release of the first Brian Brain album in two years, it's Martin Atkins!!! And we all know that when there's a celebration that means it's a P-A-R-T-Y!!! And when there's a party taking place it can only happen at the Kennel Club!!! So get on down and check out the new release and have yourself a grand ole time!!!

SUN 7/7: Two bands considered to be at the forefront of new music in Philadelphia. Mr. Mehta, a powerhouse combo, combining the best in melodies with a style and arena charisma that is downright mesmerizing. And then there's Electric Love Muffin. This band is going places. Already a college radio staple is their version of "Norwegian Wood." Two bands that represent the potential for a burgeoning new music culture in Center City!!

WED 7/10: Sure you can go to some crummy theater and pay your $4 or $5 and see some movie and then go home. And then what??? At Kennel Club's Videodrome Film Night you not only get the best in contemporary cinema, but there's our midnight barbecue for when you get the mid-movie munchies. Not to mention hot tunes to dance to and fun videos to watch. So what's the deal... you got brains, right? Use 'em! See you at the club!

THU 7/11: Open bar from 9-3.

FRI 7/12: Okay all you chic and trendies... admit it. Way back when you used to be as uncool as the rest of us. But hey — that's okay! Because these days it's totally cool to be uncool! And who should know that better than the people who bring you the film GOONIES, and the folks at ROCKAMERICA, who are sponsoring a super-hot contest in honor of the film. Only a handful of clubs across the country will be participating in this event - which involves a treasure hunt at the club. The object? To find the hidden key somewhere in the club. (If you're looking for meaning to all this go see the film!). The lucky person who finds the key then becomes eligible to win one of the following: a brand new Mitsubishi Mirage Car, a VCR and Cyndi Lauper video compilation, along with additional prizes for runners up, in a grand prize drawing. Clues will be provided, along with a map to aid you. And... for everyone involved there's posters, albums, buttons and more!

SAT 7/13: It's David Wildmann's "Live Aid for Philadelphia" party — only at the Kennel Club. Hey, now, before you get on your high horse just relax... after a day's worth of Ethiopian-famine inspired music don't you think you deserve a break? After all... charity does begin at home, y'know. But take it easy... in keeping with the spirit of things it's free admission tonight for anyone who attended the Live Aid concert at the JFK Stadium and still has their ticket stub. Who says Kennel isn't doing their part....

SUN 7/14: Reggae Reggae Reggae... with FIVE STORY FALL and TIMI AND THE DUB WARRIORS. It's rare that a local nightclub will feature a night of local reggae. It's also rare when both bands are of amazing quality, distinction and energy. Both bands are young, enthusiastic admirers of the culture and reggae style. But, additionally, they take that rasta beat and combine it with up-to-the-minute social commentary. An important night!!

WED 7/17: It's Videodrome Film Night with free admission 9-11 PM. Film at 11:00 and a free barbecue at midnight.

THU 7/18: Open bar from 9-3

FRI 7/19: The Papier Machine. They are a marionette theatre oriented to the streets. The Zimmerman brothers, Lee and Drew, have performed their Rock and Fantasy Reyue from Chicago to New Orleans and Philadelphia. Since 1979 they have been creating wonderfully wierd puppets in paper mache over wire armatures and tonight they present a marathon continuous performance of "This Show Is Controlled By Aliens Who Look Like Our Money."

SUN 7/21: THE VELs!!! That's right, Philadelphia's own THE VELs!!! Making a rare return engagement to Center City. The Vels will be showcasing new material from their forthcoming album and premiering their new stage ensemble. Without a doubt one of the truly great original Philadelphia bands. Two sets, starting promptly at 10:30 P.M. and Midnight. Don't miss it!!!

WED 7/24: It's midsummer and the temperature outside is hot hot hot. But in the Kennel Club things are coooooooool. It's Videodrome film night — be sure to check at the club for the feature to be shown — so sit down, relax, and enjoy the show! And don't worry about the lack of popcorn... because the midnight barbecue has more than enough to satisfy your hunger! Free admission 9-11 PM.

THU 7/25: Open bar from 9-3.

FRI 7/26: Hey, Mahn... It's "Reggae Music" — lots of videos by all your favorite artists only at the Kennel Club. Tonight the Club features not one, not two, not three... but dozens of artists all giving life to that rasta beat. Check out videos with Bob Marley, Michigan & Smiley, along with live excerpts from Reggae Sunsplash Jamaica festival of Aswad, Burning Spear, Blue Riddim, and Mutabaruka.

SAT 7/27: A rare Philadelphia premier!!! Kennel Club is proud to host SUSSMAN LAWRENCE. A Very modern pop combo hailing from Minneapolis, their recent two album set has gathered rave reviews from the NY Times to the Village Voice. SUSSMAN LAWRENCE will be performing in the loft tonight at 11:30 P.M. and 1:00 A.M.

SUN 7/28: It's art night. What art night at the Kennel Club? That's right! MELANIE STEWART and Company Dance and CRASH COURSE IN SCIENCE will be combining their many talents and put on a stellar show of new rhythms and original choreography. Performances will be scattered throughout the floors all night with primary starting points at 10:30 p.m. and midnight. The music world, the dance world, and the just plain fun world unite tonight!!

COMING: Jeffrey Lee Pierce, The Meat Puppets, Executive Slacks, Alien Sex Fiend and Bunnydrums!!!
